The paragraph above the stamp is set in plain Helvetica, and it must stay editable even though the line below it is drawn by a font made of procedures.

The paragraph below the stamp is set in the same font as the first one and has two lines on this page.